

HOW REAL ESTATE AGENTS & BROKERS CAN BENEFIT FROM

GigWorker SOLUTIONS

The ever-fluctuating real estate industry is one that relies on the adaptability of its agents and brokers. Gig Worker Solutions offers flexible coverage options to meet individual healthcare, tax, and insurance needs.

Agents

- Real Estate Agents feel the brunt of market fluctuations and market trends.
- Most Real Estate Agents are 1099 workers, with limited support and business education.
- They are not offered benefits by employers and are responsible for their own healthcare and insurance coverage.
- Real Estate Agents are under financial pressure as costs to operate continue to increase.

Brokers

- As with Agents, Real Estate Brokers, are also pressured by increasing costs to operate.
- The industry for brokers is transient and constantly shifting.
- One of the most imperative challenges Brokers face is how to position their brokerage in the marketplace. Their brokerage needs to be a unique and desirable location where agents will want to keep their license.
